

FOR 10 YEARS—month-in and month-out—Costco’s Book Buyer, Pennie Clark Ianniciello, has been selecting her favorites to showcase in the Costco Connection. To commemorate this milestone, Costco is bringing back 10 of her favorites of the past decade. So, join us! Catch up with any you may have missed, or return to an old favorite!

A Decade of Books

10 Years of Pennie’s Picks

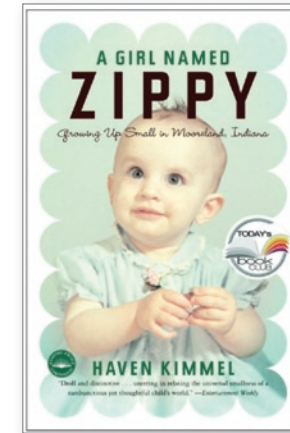

All titles available early August.

Angle of Repose
by Wallace Stegner

“Brilliant . . . Two stories, past and present, merge to produce what important fiction must: a sense of the enhancement of life.”—Los Angeles Times

PENGUIN PUTNAM / Paperback

A Girl Named Zippy
by Haven Kimmel

“A Girl Named Zippy seems to be about the cleverest . . . memoir ever. [Kimmel is] a born storyteller. . . I imagine everyone in the world would be grateful for Kimmel’s books.”
—Orlando Sentinel

RANDOM HOUSE / Paperback

Blood Work
by Michael Connelly

“Fans of Connelly’s Harry Bosch novels will feel right at home with this beautifully constructed, powerfully resonating thriller, and newcomers will see right away what all the fuss has been about.”
—Publishers Weekly

HACHETTE / Paperback

Ahab’s Wife
by Sena Jeter Naslund

“This is truly a grand . . . adventure story whose heroine survives on her intellect and courage.”—Newsday

HARPER COLLINS / Paperback

Confessions of an Ugly Stepsister
by Gregory Maguire

“[An] engrossing story . . . endearing and memorable.”
—Boston Herald

HARPER COLLINS / Paperback

Skinny Dip
by Carl Hiaasen

“Like Hiaasen’s nine previous novels, this one’s a corker, chock-full of belly laughs and blistering truths.”
—Allison Block, Booklist

The Brothers K
by David James Duncan

“The pages of The Brothers K sparkle!”—The New York Times Book Review

RANDOM HOUSE / Paperback

Me & Emma
by Elizabeth Flock

“Deftly capturing the hidden thoughts of an emotionally bereft child, Flock’s haunting second novel . . . is not soon forgotten.”—Booklist

MIRA / Paperback

The Fig Eater
by Jody Shields

“. . . hypnotic . . . one of the most original historical novels. . . with a style and perspective uniquely its own . . .”
—Denver Post

HACHETTE / Paperback

The Polished Hoe
by Austin Clarke

“A very creatively executed novel.”—Brad Hooper, Booklist
